Dedication

'Yea, music is the prophetic art,
Among the gifts that God hath sent,
One of the most magnificent.'

- - Longfellow

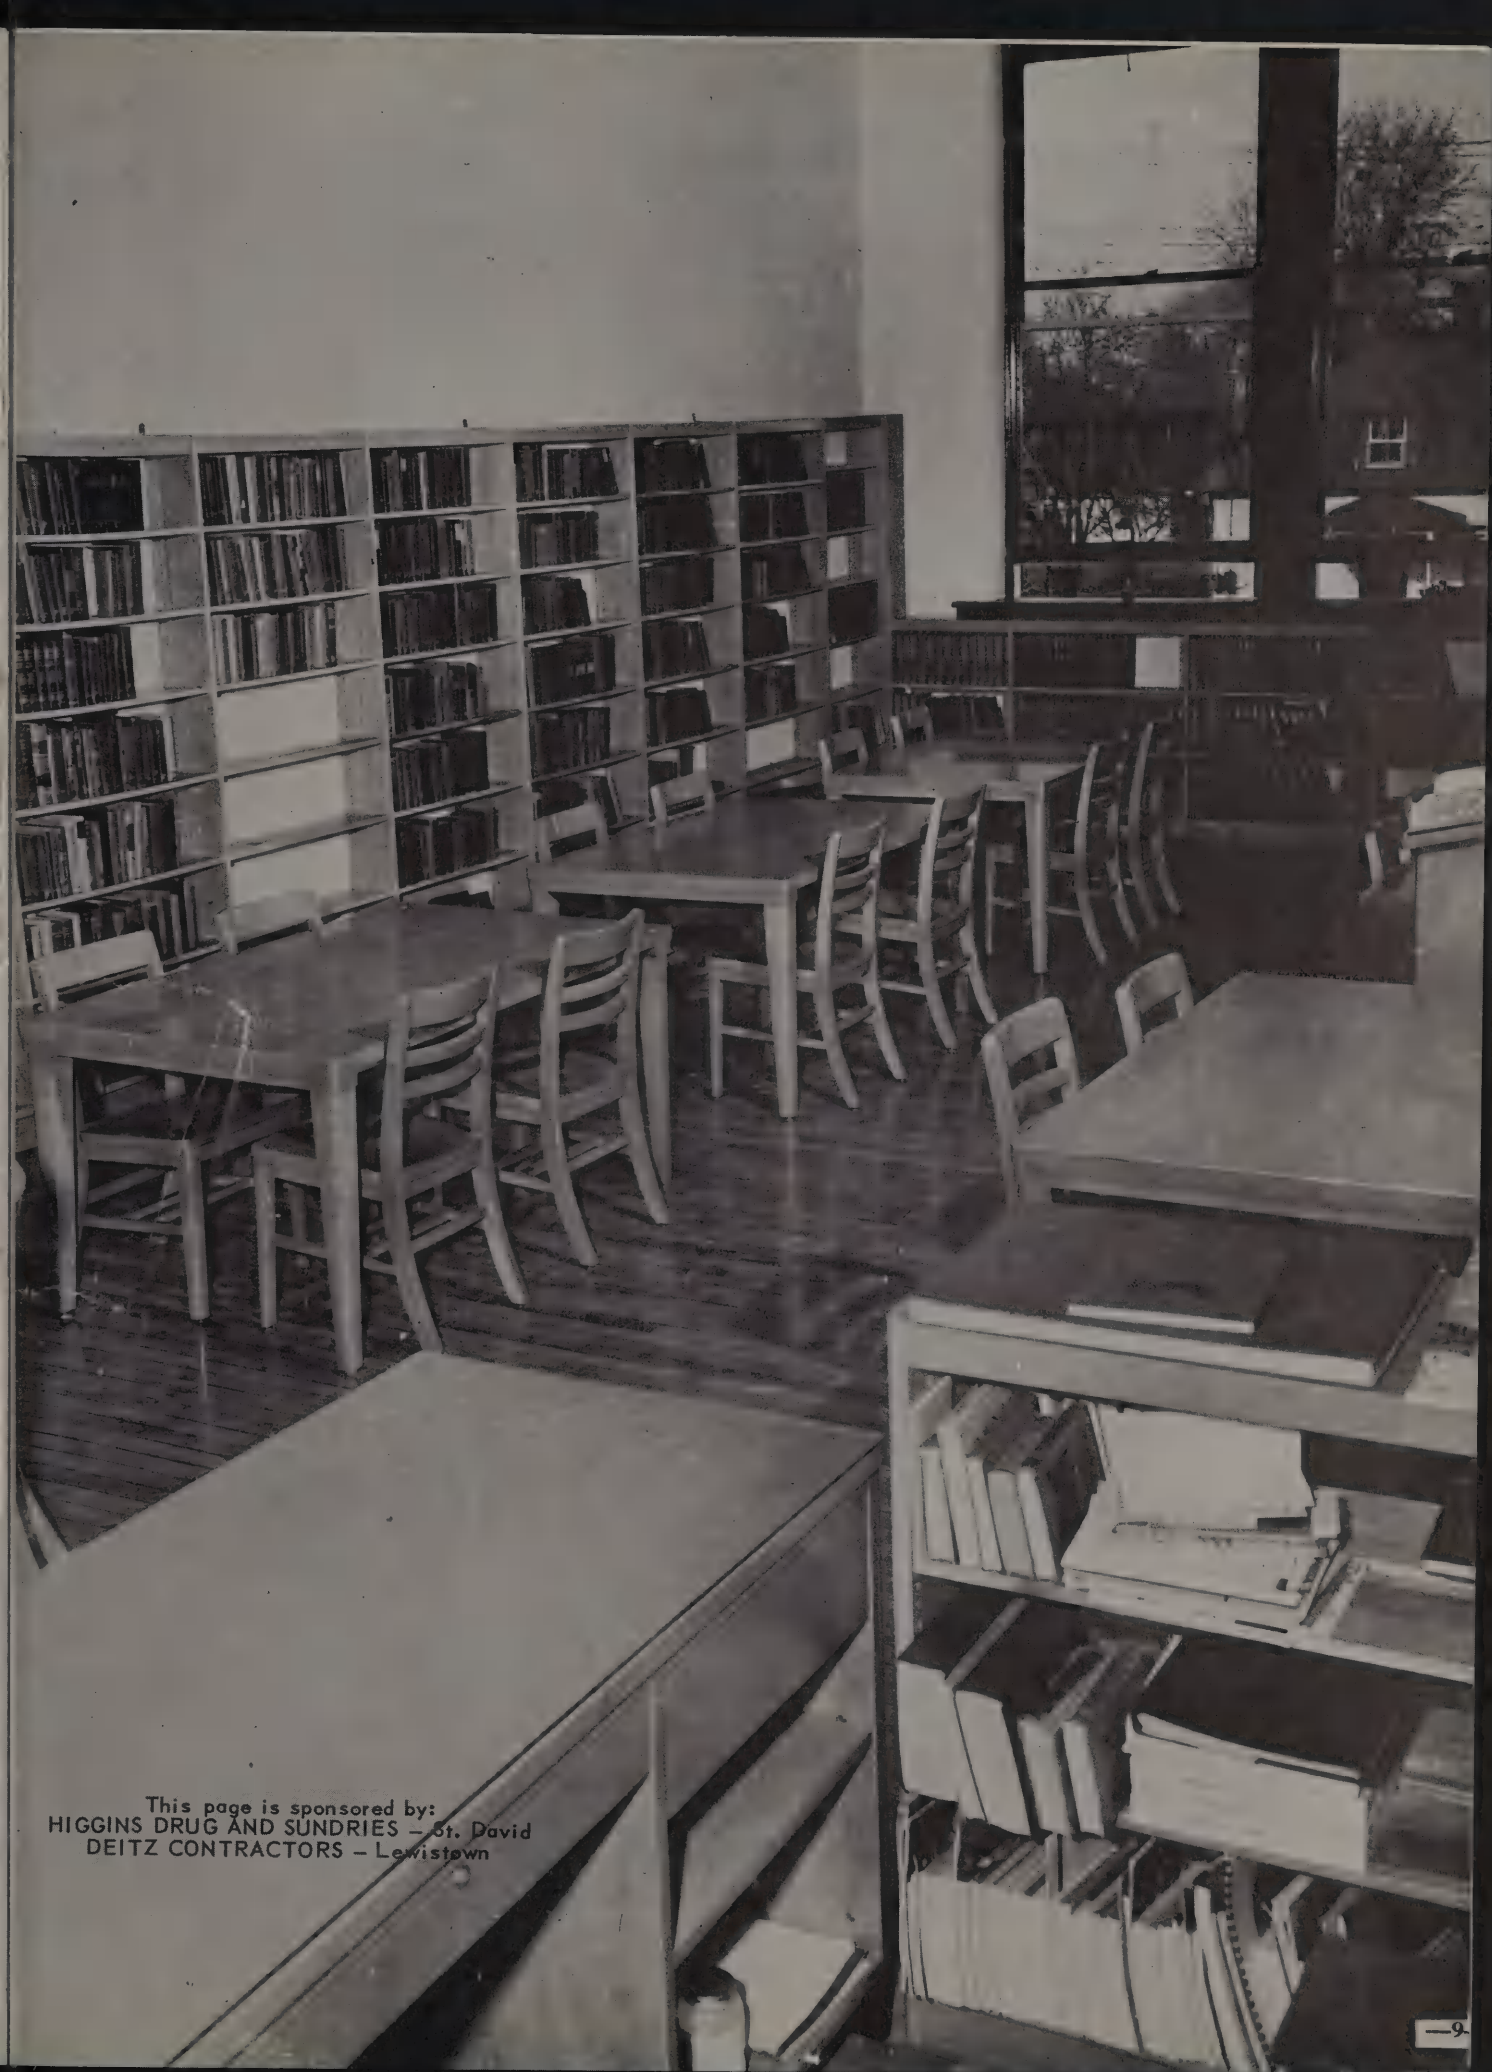

With this tribute the senior class of '56 wishes to dedicate our annual to Mr. Walter Brashear, instrumental and vocal instructor of Unit 3. He has developed our department of instrumental music from one which he found in its infancy to one of the most outstanding departments of Unit 3, one in which we are all justly proud. To Mr. Brashear, we owe its popularity and success.

Class Will

We, the Class of '56, being now in that lofty state of mind to which only seniors can attain, but feeling nevertheless, that our days among you are numbered and knowing we're not long for C. H. S., do give and bequeath our possessions as follows:

To the freshmen, we will our dignified ways.

To the sophomores, we will our accumulated knowledge, the result of four years of industrious labor (?).

To the juniors, we will our superior intellect, our position on a high pedestal in the eyes of the underclassmen, and the forever endless task of publishing the 1956 Cardinal.

To the faculty, we will our air of assurance and our sympathy for having endured us for four, long, hard years.

Individually:

I, Lee Clayberg, bequeath my center line backer spot on the football team to Terry Pickle.

I, Riley Williams, bequeath my black motorcycle jacket to "The Terror of Highway No. 9."

I, Eldon Miller, bequeath my love for the girls to Duane Hart.

I, Dick Strode, bequeath my ability to brag on a coon dog that runs rabbits to Kenny Ryan.

I, Richard Lafary, bequeath "nothing to nobody, 'cause I ain't got nothing."

I, Caryl Crick, bequeath my shyness to anyone who wants it.

I, Tom France, bequeath my last chair in the trombone section in the band for four years to Phil Keefauver.

I, Esther Munson, bequeath my impartial judgment and sense of fair play to my sister, Harriett.

I, Betty Lowery, bequeath my quiet ways to Janice Miller.

I, Charlotte Ford, bequeath my rides to the Bellvue Theatre to Carol Carver who just might get her money's worth.

I, Paula Heller, bequeath to the future homecoming queens my beautiful and shapely figure.

I, Dick Coulter, bequeath my being the smallest player on the football team to Dick Henderson.

I, Don Henderson, bequeath my ability to skip classes to the freshmen.

I, Janet Cleer, bequeath the honor of being the first "Mrs." of my class to Marcia Bevard.

I, Nancy Kerr, bequeath my piccolo playing in marching band to Pat Ault.

I, Don Harper, bequeath my title of "the tallest boy in high school" to Teddy Reffet.

I, Gene Roberts, bequeath my manly art of self defense displayed at the Colchester game to Melbert Lafary.

I, Karen Hackett, bequeath my ability to go to the Lewistown junior and senior prom to Virginia Barnes.

I, Eugene Howard, bequeath my seats in study hall to anyone who can find them.

I, Ronnie Henderson, bequeath my art of tackling shoe tops to anyone who can hit that low.

I, Marilyn Ford, bequeath my steady boyfriend, Kenneth Brooks, to absolutely no one!

I, Dick Koelling, bequeath my love of hot rods to anyone who likes them.

I, Marty Moore, bequeath my knack for passing out "chewing gum" to innocent people to anyone who thinks they can handle the job.

I, Kay Walters, bequeath my ability to tear out of chorus twice in one day to anyone who can break my speed record.

I, Danny Wild, bequeath my freckles to Kathryn Orwig.

I, Larry Wilson, bequeath my girl, Carol Miller, to absolutely no one, my worthless coon dog to Chris Heller to track down all his girls, and my "little" knowledge of basketball to the whole Varsity team next year.

I, Jerry Von Ach, bequeath my last name to any beautiful girl (apply on printed form).

I, Beverly Morgan, bequeath my bleached hair to June Paul.

I, Rayford Darst, bequeath my nickname "Squeaky" to Donnie Thomson.

I, Garry Bevard, bequeath Bonnie Rench to absolutely no one! Not even "Chip."

I, Gary Harper, bequeath my title of the smartest kid in school and never getting kicked out to my brother, Larry.

I, Charlene Reneau, bequeath my trip to Girls State to some lucky junior girl.

I, Ken Marvel, bequeath my seat in study hall to Tom Schoenenberger, if he thinks he will fit.

I, Martha Turall, bequeath my "milkshake sham-poo" to anybody who can get Ronnie Ehresman to give them one.

I, Robert Strode, bequeath my ability to do calisthenics to Coach Morelli.

I, Ken Runyan, bequeath my role as the most handsome kid in school to Gene Rand.

I, Don Clayberg, bequeath my clowning anyplace, anywhere, to Milt "Boomer" Murphy.

I, Carol Sosey, bequeath my place in the middle of the front seat of a '56 "Olds" to absolutely no one.

I, Ronnie Dilts, bequeath my black Chevy to Coach Richardson.

I, Jack Haynes, bequeath my quiet ways to Carl Windsor.

I, Helen Nussel, bequeath my ability to blush to Nancy Phillips.

I, Jim Wilson, bequeath my "natural curly" locks to Dick Henderson, my slim waistline to Ronnie Clayberg, my dignified intelligence to Curt Foster, my superior football playing to John Mowery, and my "nose" to absolutely no one.

I, Mary Lou Bannister, bequeath my knack to keep a diamond to Rita Sleeth, who lost hers.

I, Edwina Wilson, bequeath my "giggling ability" to the dignified freshmen.

I, Dick Moody, bequeath my first chair in the trombone section to "Porky" Baughman, if it will hold her up.

I, Paul Keime, bequeath my "Prom" curls to Garry Howarter.

I, Homer Thomson, bequeath my speedy ways to Kathleen Wilde.

To this document we do set our hand and seal on this first day of January A. D. of 1956, in hopes that the inheritance will be accepted in the same manner in which we have so generously bestowed it.

So They Say

'Twas night in Cuba and throughout the town
The people slept peacefully
And out on the campus of C.H.S.
Three shadowy figures I saw.
These three forms suggest an old story I've heard
Of fates that the future foretells.
As I drew close I heard one of them say
In a voice low, but clear as a bell;
"From yonder brick building shall graduate soon
A very remarkable class,
Each member is destined to famous become."
I'll relate what I saw come to pass.

Folks, it brings me near to tears
To look ahead through all these years
And write it down in a public book
That VIRGIL LEE BURROWS is a famous cook.
And MARTHA TURALL, I declare,
Is a bubble dancer at the county fair.
ROBERT STRODE is a great benefactor
He made improvements on the soda cracker.
KEN MARVEL has grown greater;
He's made a new rat-exterminator.
While CAROL JEAN SOSEY, a prima donna of note,
Lost her voice when she drowned in a moat.
ELDON MILLER, rather short and stout,
Labors in the shops as a roustabout.
And CHARLENE RENEAU, as his wife,
Certainly leads him a hen-pecked life.
BEVERLY MORGAN, the world's record has set,
Knocking golf balls through a tennis net.
DANNY WILD a famous attorney at law
Permits his wife to put garlic in his slaw.
JERRY VON ACH is a chauffeur with a foreign car,
While MARILYN FORD is a swimming star.
LARRY and JIM WILSON, cousins, 'tis said,
Are detectives out looking for bugs in a bed.
And KAREN HACKETT, well I declare,
She's the director of the Illinois Fair.
Cartoonists of world renown
Are GENE ROBERTS and RILEY WILLIAMS;
They say that their clever drawing and such
Are actually rolling up millions.
Oh, yes! I must tell you before I forget
That ESTHER MUNSON is nursing in Bartonville yet.
HOMER THOMSON, it seems
Is now quite busy coaching basketball teams.
JANE WALSH is a winsome widow of wealth
And of servants she has at least nine,
With RAYFORD DARST her butler and
DICK STRODE, her cook,
They certainly do get along fine.
RONNIE HENDERSON, a shoestring salesman, is still going strong,
And if you want short ones, you're sure to get long.
While DON CLAYBERG, is in great demand
As the wealthy "Drum Major of St. David's Band."
JANET CLEER and NANCY KERR, it appears,
Have been selling mouse traps through all these long years.
A clever fortune-teller one girl now is
With earrings and handkerchief red
Her name's KAY WALTERS, she character reads
By feeling the bumps on one's head
While poor KEN RUNYAN,
When last I saw him, he was peeling an onion.

The Mayo Brothers have new rivals now,
 At a clinic established nearby
 Are DON HENDERSON and DICK COULTER,
 Specialists of nose, throat, and eye.
 Interpretive dancing is now being taught
 In a studio near Dublin Bay
 By that graceful PAULA HELLER;
 She has classes all hours of the day.
 CHARLOTTE FORD and BETTY LOWERY
 Are nurses with marvelous insight.
 Into their poor suffering patients,
 They pour castor oil by the pint.
 CARYL CRICK married a chemist 'tis said
 But the experiment failed and now he is dead.
 EDWINA WILSON, the talkative pest,
 Has been married 5 times, and with quadruplets is now blessed.
 DICK KOELLING and THOMAS FRANCE
 Are busy teaching baby grasshoppers how to dance.
 DON HARPER is wearing his shoeleather thin
 Soliciting aid for the deaf.
 His helper is little GENE HOWARD;
 They look like Mutt and Jeff.
 RICHARD LAFARY and GARRY BEVARD arouse
 The whole countryside with their cries,
 They are gathering pearls and expect to get rich
 Before either one of them dies.
 LEE CLAYBERG is a tailor by trade,
 While JO ANN DAVIS is a cranky old maid.
 Our demure HELEN NUSSEL
 No longer so shy
 Is acting with Rock Hudson
 In their latest movie entitled, "Oh, My!"
 PAUL KEIME and JACK HAYNES
 Are auctioneers very well known;
 They sell everything from pianos and farms
 To bedsteads and rockers that groan.
 BEVERLY HELLE and DONNA ENGLISH jig for their food
 In the "Hangout" with pride,
 Their clever kicks and fantastic jerks
 Caused some folks to laugh 'till they died.
 In garments of neat immaculate white,
 RONNIE DILTS with broom and dust pan
 Is cleaning the main street of Fiatt.
 He's doing the best that he can.
 Efficient and capable in bookkeeping
 Are DIXIE GRINDLE and MARY BANNISTER shrewd.
 Their columns are straight and their figures are neat,
 Whenever their ledgers are viewed.
 GARY HARPER, DICK MOODY, and MARTY MOORE
 With their Dixieland Band of great renown
 Are playing 7 nights a week on Miami Shore.
 Folks say they're the best to be found.
 The fates became silent and looked all around;
 When they saw that nothing had stirred
 Their three dark forms vanished and left me alone
 To think of the things that I had heard.

 When years will have passed and all things prophesied
 By these fates have surely come true
 You'll appreciate then all the efforts I've made
 To forecast these events for you.

The 1955 football season was an interesting one with one of the best statistical records in the state and yet only a 50% season. Except for the first game, no opponent scored more than one touchdown against Cuba. We were the defensive champions and tied for the offensive championship honors in conference play.

Four year letterman, Don Clayberg, chosen by teammates as the most valuable player was given special mention on Little All State and All North Team.

Special honor was given co-captains elect Ken Runyan and Ron Henderson. Runyan was given honorable mention on the Little All State and All Northern Illinois.

Also mention was given to Cuba's next year's All State line candidate Ron Clayberg.

John Mowery was given honorable mention on All North Little All State.

Varsity

Although the junior varsity had only a five game schedule, they remained out for the sport and often played against the varsity. Varsity

The Cardinals of the 55-56 season were a veteran squad with eight returning lettermen. They got off to a fast start and improved steadily over the season. They took second place in the Roseville Tournament and were county champions for the second consecutive year. The team was led in scoring by Don Harper, 6' 4" center, a three year varsity veteran. Ken Runyan and Don Clayberg must be given special mention as able starters and four years varsity veterans. Nice going, Cardinals. We're all proud of you!

This year's record of the junior varsity team makes Cuba's basketball future look bright. They had an exceptionally good season which included second place honors in the county tournament. Quinn and Windsor were outstanding sophomores and Phil McLouth, a freshman, distinguished himself for his drive and re-bouncing ability.

Here's to your future success!

The Cardinal baseball squad ended last season's play with a 4-2 record which was good for second place in the conference. Graduation took a great toll in the starting roster, but the summer baseball program produced an able crop of young ballplayers. Returning three year lettermen included: Jim Wilson, Don Clayberg, Danny Wild and Gary Harper. John Mowery and Jeff Quinn, the only two returning lettermen, developed as they did in football and basketball. The pitching staff gave Cuba Cardinals one of their better seasons.

The Cardinal track squad was mostly made up of veterans, which included: Don Harper, one of the county's best jumpers; Ken Marvel, a top middle distance man; Ron Henderson, a good sprinter; and John Mowery, also an excellent sprinter. A fine crop of freshmen and sophomores contributed to the success of this group. Coach Richardson was very proud of these boys all of whom took pride in the competitive spirit of the sport.

Senior Play

The senior play, "Two's a Crowd", was one of the most successful to be produced in C.H.S. When Dick (Dick Moody), Pat (Janet Cleer) and Dorothy (Kay Walters) found themselves "in charge" of their home in the absence of their mother (Charlene Reneau), they decided to rent rooms. Mamie (Beverly Morgan), maid, cook, and amateur detective, refused to become involved. An evening of comedy and laughter followed.

The class really enjoyed presenting the play. I think orchids are due the entire cast, those who worked behind the scenes and particularly Mrs. Skean, who did such a tremendous job in directing it.

Band

The Cuba High School band, under the very capable direction of Mr. Walter A. Brashear, has been an inspiration to the band members, the faculty and other students at C.H.S. The band was always active at home football games, putting on very entertaining and colorful half-time shows. It furnished lively music at the basketball games and with this "backing up" our team was inspired to many victories. For the past four years, superior ratings have been awarded the band.

We, the senior band members of '56, salute you, Mr. Brashear, for the tremendous effort you have put forth toward our music appreciation, as well as actual playing. We are certainly going to miss the band next year and we only hope that in the years to come we have a person to whom we can look up to and respect as we have you.

Mixed Chorus

Last fall the high school choruses of forty members, under the direction of Mr. Bra-shear, moved into the new music department, which had been constructed for them. They were divided into the mixed chorus and boys chorus. They were hosts to the county festival and participated in the contests. All in all, the choruses had a most successful season.
